GLOBAL AIESEC

ALUMNI HALL OF FAME AWARD

AUGUST 2008

Brazil, 2008.

Role – model and genuine leader – this is how members of AIESEC in Southern Cone would instinctively describe who Pablo Toledo is.

The AIESEC Experience of Pablo is full of victories. He is a founding member of two AIESEC local committees in Chile (“Universidad de Valparaíso” and “Universidad Católica de Valparaíso”). Under his leadership as President of AIESEC in Chile in 1985-1986, Pablo managed to gain back the full membership of the country, to achieve highest number of internships, members and local committees in the history of AIESEC in Chile. The global network recognized his leadership awarding AIESEC in Chile The Most Developed Country Award within the Latin America Region for the term 1985-1986.

Pablo left active role with

“During and after his AIESEC active involvement, Pablo has been there to lead positive changes and to help people develop themselves, live their own dreams and create changes by themselves”.

- Tomás Olavarría, Alumni Relations Manager, AIESEC in Southern Cone

AIESEC, after his second AIESEC internship - in Germany, but ever since he has always been supporting AIESEC through personal and corporate donations and through his personal network of contacts. Pablo has served on the BoA of AIESEC in Chile / AIESEC in Southern Cone in different periods and has just been selected for President of the AIESEC Alumni Association in Chile.

The corporate career of Pablo is at least as impressive as his achievements in AIESEC. Leveraging on his leadership skills, Pablo moved fast through a range of positions and served as Marketing Manager of P&G for the Latin America Region. On the age of 32 he was appointed General Manager of PepsiCo. Pablo has initiated Corporate Social Responsibility departments in several companies he has worked for. Today he is presiding a consulting company he founded himself.
